

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Do the airwaves still belong to the people? It's in your hands. Please put politics aside, and do the right thing. Radio has become a hodge-podge of juke-box, religious dogma, and corporate blair. Please.
